Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend, withdraw, or supplement this designation as provided by law, to call all experts designated by any other party to this action, to solicit opinion testimony

1 from custodians of records to the extent such testimony is needed for proper authentication of 2 records, and to call any additional experts to rebut or impeach expert or lay testimony.

3 In addition, Plaintiffs make this designation subject to the reservation of the following rights:

4 (a) the right to supplement this designation pursuant to California Code of Civil 5 Procedure section 2034.280, as well as any future rulings or decisions of the Court that affect the 6 scope of evidence in the trial;

7 (b) the right to expand this designation or designate new experts to respond to the 8 opinions offered by Defendants' experts in their depositions;

9 (c) the right to call at trial experts not previously designated and/or individuals
10 designated as experts by any other party in this action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure 11 section 2034.310; and

12 (d) the right to elicit any expert testimony at trial from any qualified person which would 13 be of benefit to the jury to determine material issues of fact pursuant to the California Rules of Civil 14 Procedure and California Rules of Evidence.

15 (e)

16 Further, by designating these general causation witnesses, Plaintiffs do not intend to waive 17 any objections to deposition testimony, exhibits, or other evidence or argument. Pursuant to the 18 agreement between the parties, these general causation expert designations are being served without 19 a formal declaration as would otherwise be included per California Code of Civil Procedure section 20 2034.260(c).
